New Publications.

WILL be ready Saturday, Nov. 28: THE FOURTH THOUSAND OR, THE VOLUNTEERS OF '62.

BY MR. ERCKMANN-CHATRIAN. WITH TEN FULL-PAGE ILLUSTRATIONS.

One vol. 12mo. Price $1.50.

"Madame Therese; or, The Volunteers of '62," is the story of a阀ander in the army of the Moselle—a division of the Republican forces—left for dead on the battle-field of Anzatz, rescued and brought back to life by a brave German Doctor. The story abounds in graphic pictures of country life on the borders of France, and is one of the most charming of modern fiction's productions.

"The translator has very happily restored the quaint felicity of description, simplicity, pathos, and humor of the original. * * * This charming little romance.—[John G. Whittier.]

Will be published on the same day.

A CHARMING STORY BY A NEW WRITER: CONSTANCE AYLMER.

A STORY OF THE SEVENTEENTH CENTURY.

One vol. 12mo. Price $1.50.

The plot of "Constance Aylmer" is laid in the time when New-York was a Dutch colony and England was ruled by Cromwell. The condition of Manhattan Island and the surrounding country is graphically sketched; the ways and manners of our Dutch and English ancestors are reproduced with wonderful fidelity, and at the same time with a liveliness and humor which throw a charm around a story valuable for its historical accuracy and of exciting interest.
